REFLECTION

After forty days of preparation, fasting, prayer, and works of charity, we arrive at the celebration of Easter. This is our greatest feast of the year, and our joy cannot be contained in only one day. It spills over to fill up the fifty days leading up to Pentecost. Today's alleluia verse counsels us, "Christ our paschal lamb, has been sacrificed; let us then feast with joy in the Lord."

Christ's resurrection changed human experience. Never before in history had someone risen from the dead, never to die again. It is no wonder that Peter and the beloved disciple stand in the empty tomb amazed and fearful, not understanding what had happened there. In the season of Easter we, too, are invited to live into this mystery that changes everything.
