TODAY'S SCRIPTURE READINGS
3rd Sunday of Lent (Scripture Readings)

1st Reading: Exodus 3:1-8,13-15 The Lord appeared to Moses in a burning bush
2nd Reading: 1Cor 10:1-6,10-12 All that happened to the people of Moses in the desert, was written for our benefit
Gospel Reading: Luke 13: 1-9 A tree that bears no fruit will be cut down and burned
Psalm: Psalm 27: Psalm 103: The Lord is kind and merciful

23rd March 2025

The readings for this midway point in Lent speak to us of the all-pervading presence of the divine. God's name, revealed in the first reading from the book of Exodus, is totally identified with divine being. Gods' existence is revealed in all that is. St. Mary MacKillop expressed this in her insightful words, 'wherever you are, God is'. The psalmist describes the nature of such divine being as 'compassion and love, slow to anger and rich in mercy'. The parable of the barren fig tree reminds us that God is patient in waiting for us to bear fruit from the divine gift-ness plated within us. It is a parable which calls us to realise that God's grace is faithfully nurtured in us by tilling the soil of our lives. We are called to respond to this divine care and generosity by going forth and bearing fruit through our love and generosity to all we encounter.

St Dominic's School News

Across the Path - from the School Principal, Daniel Pepper:

Welcome to Week 6 at St Dominic's Catholic Primary School!

Our Lenten journey is well underway, with each classroom embracing different ways to bring this special season to life for our children. Lent is a time for reflection and growth in our relationship with Christ, seen through the eyes of our young learners. This might involve giving something up, doing an act of kindness each day, or helping out a little more at home. It's a meaningful journey that brings us closer to God.

Parent-Teacher Conferences: A huge thank you to all our parents and caregivers for attending the recent Parent-Teacher Conferences - an incredible 94% turnout! Your engagement and commitment to your child's learning are truly valued and appreciated.

Enjoying Our School Grounds: We love seeing our school grounds being enjoyed by families and the community outside school hours! To keep them safe and welcoming for everyone, we ask that all visitors show respect for our environment and take responsibility for looking after it. Unfortunately, we've had some damage in recent weeks, including broken signs and graffiti in our prayer space. The bike track is open to all, and we ask for your help in keeping it a safe and positive space. If you see anyone behaving inappropriately or notice anything suspicious, please report it to the school. Together, we can ensure that St Dominic's remains a place we are all proud of!

Farewell to Father Ephrem: This week, we say a heartfelt farewell to Father Ephrem as he moves on to his new ministry at Holy Cross Parish. We celebrated his time with us through warm speeches, shared memories, and of course, cake! Father Ephrem has been a wonderful faith leader—always present for our school community, supporting our staff, guiding our children, and enriching our spiritual journey.

Stay Connected: As always, I'd love to hear your thoughts and ideas about our school. Feel free to drop by for a chat anytime!

Church funny: Why did the priest always carry a pencil?

Because he liked to draw people closer to God!

Alpha: "Come and join us on the first Alpha in St. Dominic's Church, Bolton St., Blockhouse Bay where we will explore together some of life's big questions, develop friendships in the process and also get to know Jesus better. Bring your friends and family along, especially those who have strayed from Church, and those who are struggling with issues. While this Alpha will be held in a Catholic context all are welcome to attend. It will start on Monday 24th February at 7pm with a free introductory dinner where you can experience the Alpha process, and there will be no obligation to continue, so 'Come and see!'"

Year of Jubilee Pope Francis has proclaimed 2025 as a Year of Jubilee – Pilgrims of Hope. As well as local initiatives the diocese has a calendar of Jubilee Events.
