TODAY'S SCRIPTURE READINGS

17th Sunday of Ordinary Time - Year A (Scripture Readings)

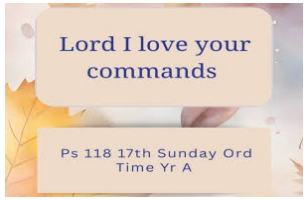
1st Reading: 1 Kg 3:5, 7-12 Solomon asks the Lord for wisdom

2nd Reading: Rom 8:28-30 God predestined us to become true images of his Son

Gospel Reading: Mt 13: 44 -52 The parables of the kingdom.

Psalm: Ps 118 (119) Lord, I love your commands

26th July 2026



Shrewd financial traders advocate diversifying investments rather than plunging everything into one item, so the Parables of the Treasure in the Field and Pearl of Great Price are counter intuitive and definitely not guidance from astute financial advisers.

They reflect the joy we should have in discovering the Good News of Jesus Christ and the sacrifices we should be prepared to make in its service.

In case we are left with the impression that the 'hidden treasure and 'valuable pearl are solely for our own personal benefit, the Parable of the Dragnet shows that we are called to serve the kingdom of heaven. Solomon recognised that, to be of such service, the treasure he needed was discerning judgement. Jesus adds with the Parable of the Storekeeper, the ability to identify what is of value in both old and new. St Paul affirms that when we align our lives in such a way, God loves and calls us according to his purpose. ~ God's Word 2026
