TODAY'S SCRIPTURE READINGS

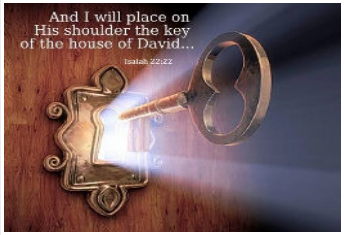
21st Sunday of Ordinary Time - Year A (Scripture Readings)

1st Reading: Is 22:19-23 I place the key of the House of David upon his shoulder

2nd Reading: Rom11:33-36 How rich are the depths of God, how deep his wisdom and knowledge

Gospel Reading: Mt 16: 13-20 Jesus asked Peter: 'but you, who do you say that I am?'

Psalm: Psalm 138 Lord, your love is eternal. Do not forsake the work of your hands.



23rd August 2026

In this passage from Isaiah we are given the description of a good master of the house in the person of Eliakim. Such a person should care for his charges as a father would. He should not become arrogant or misuse his authority, as Shebna had done, but should manage people's comings and goings in an orderly way. He would become an anchor point, a secure peg, for those who came after him.

It is not hard to see that both this passage and our Gospel pivot on the matter of good stewardship. Stewardship of the fledgling church, in Peter's case. Simon Peter, whom Matthew treats more kindly than does Mark in this same episode, recognises in Jesus the Messiah, the Son of the living God. It is his faith that will be the rock, the secure peg, on which the church will grow.
